第一部分：听力（30分）

1-5 BAABC    6-10 BBCBA    11-15 ABCAB    16-20 BBCAC

（听力录音稿）

Text 1

M: Mom, my writing assignment today is difficult.

W: What is it about?

M: My School. But I don't know how to start.

Text 2

M: What will you do for the coming May Day?

W: I will go swimming and have fun in KTV with friends on the first day. And for the other days, I'll go to the library.

Text 3

W: Good morning, sir. Can I help you?

M: I'm due to check out tomorrow, but I'd like to extend my stay by two days.

Text 4

M: Would you enjoy the life in a small village?

W: If I had to settle in a remote small village, I would not like it. I hate to be cut off from the outside world. A short stay is another story.

Text 5

W: Guess what! I got two scarves for the price of one.

M: How much did you pay?

W: $80.

M: What a great deal!

Text 6

W: Have you made any mistakes that you can never forget?

M: Of course. The biggest mistake in my life was becoming friends with the wrong person. The boy next door taught me to play computer games. He told me everybody played computer games. If I didn't, I would lose my friends.

W: Therefore, you wasted too much time on computer games.

M: Luckily, my parents found out and helped me get rid of that bad habit.

Text 7

W: Westminster Abbey is one of London's oldest buildings and has different architecture styles.

M: Wow, it's really beautiful.

W: There, to the left you will see a small street, called Downing street.

M: Is it the place where the queen and her family live?

W: No. No. 10, the last of its 10 houses is always the living place of the British prime minister.

M: Is that the famous Tower Bridge?

W: Yes, it is. The bridge is parting in the middle, and the two halves are moving forward. A big ship is passing under it.

Text 8

W: Hello, Diamonds Galore. How may I be of help to you?

M: This is Mr Anderson calling. May I speak to Mr Franks, please?

W: He is having a meeting. Would you like me to take a message?

M: Um... actually, this call is rather urgent about a delivery problem. We still haven't received the earrings that were supposed to arrive last Tuesday.

W: Yes, I'm terribly sorry about that. We have spoken with our delivery department, and we guarantee that the earrings will be delivered by tomorrow morning.

M: I see. I also want to schedule a meeting with your manager.

W: Certainly. How about Friday morning?

M: OK, should I come by at nine?

W: Well, he usually holds a staff meeting at nine. It only lasts half an hour or so.

M: Then, I will arrive half an hour after that.

W: OK, I'll schedule that.

Text 9

M: Welcome to ABC Controls. I am the manager here. Shall we start?

W: Sure.

M: We have an open position in the engineering department.

W: Yes sir, I read about it on your website, and I think I am a good fit. What are the essential qualifications required for the position?

M: This is an entry-level engineering position. We provide a lot of training here. But we do require that you have at least a bachelor's degree in computer engineering. Previous experience in the field is a plus.

W: What kind of experience would you count?

M: It would be great if you had some hands-on programming experience, knowledge of database systems or skills on developing applications.

W: My final school project was actually developing a mobile application, so I am fairly competent in developing mobile and web applications.

M: What are you looking for in a job?

W: The job should definitely help me grow in my career. I will be happy to learn and grow as I work in a passionate company like yours.

M: You are right. There is plenty of room for advancement in our company. What are your strengths? Why should I hire you?

W: I am a fast learner. My friends also find me very easy to work with. Besides, I don't mind working overtime.

M: Very well. It was nice meeting you. Expect to hear from us within a week or so about the job.

W: Nice meeting you too.

Text 10

In many ways, Aibo is just like any other dog. It barks, it plays, it does tricks and it begs for attention. But there's one major difference: Aibo is an interactive robot pet created by Sony. But how much is owning an Aibo like owning a real dog? Gail Melson, a professor of psychology at Purdue University in Indiana, studied how kids aged 9 to 15 reacted to Aibo. "We found that children treated Aibo not so much as a machine but as an interactive partner," she says. Although the kids knew they were playing with a robot, saying it wouldn't be right to get rid of the machine if you got bored of it. "A lot of people get a pet dog or cat, but what they really want is a toy," says Jessica Pierce, an animal expert. “Animals are not toys.” One of the benefits of Aibo is that it is a toy. Unlike a real pet, it doesn't make a mess or need food and water. It can even be left alone for hours or days in a row. For some busy families, getting an Aibo instead of a real dog might be the more humane choice.

第三节 书面表达（15分）

参考范文：

Dear Leo,

I am sorry to hear about your communication problems with your parents, but I know how you feel since I've had similar problems before. Here are my suggestions and I hope things can get better soon.

First, let's put ourselves in their shoes. Parents love us and often try to prevent us from making mistakes that seem obvious to them. When we share our problems with them, we often look for a listening ear and an open heart, not a solution. So, what you need to do is to tell them about this difference and put trust in them that they will keep this in mind.

I hope these suggestions will help.

Yours,
